- o separate provisions for SC, ST, women, children, and backward regions.
- o detailed list of rights, DPSPs and details of administration procedures
- Originally (1949), had a Preamble, 395 Articles (divided into 22 Parts) and 8 Schedules.
- Presently, it consists of a Preamble, 25 parts, 448 Articles, 12 Schedules, and 104 Amendments till date.

Unique blend of rigidity and flexibility:

- Some parts can be amended by ordinary law making procedure while certain provisions can be amended by a majority of the total membership of that house and by a majority of not less than two-third of the members of that house present and voting.
- Some amendments are also required to be ratified by the legislatures of not less than one-half of the states before being presented to the President for assent.
- India as a sovereign, socialist, secular, democratic and republic: India is governed by its people through their elected representatives based on universal adult franchise.
- Parliamentary System of Government: Parliament controls the functioning of the CoM
 - o executive is responsible to the legislature and remains in power as long as it enjoys the confidence of the legislature.
- Single Citizenship: single citizenship provided by the union and recognized by all the states across India.
- Universal Adult Franchise: establishes political equality in India through the method of universal adult franchise which functions on the basis of 'one person one vote'.
 - Every Indian who is 18 years of age or above is entitled to vote in the elections, irrespective of caste, sex, race, religion or status.
- Independent and Integrated Judicial System: free from the influence of the executive and the legislature.
 - O SC as the apex court below which HCs and lower courts come

Fundamental Rights, Fundamental Duties and DPSPs:

- Fundamental Rights are not absolute but are subject to the limitations defined by the constitution itself and are enforceable in the court of law.
- O DPSPs are the guidelines to be followed by the states regarding governance and are not enforceable in the court of law.
- Fundamental Duties, added by the 42nd Amendment are moral conscience which ought to be followed by the Citizens.
- Federation with a strong centralising tendency: India is an indestructible Union with destructible states means it acquires a unitary character during the time of emergency.
- Balancing Parliamentary supremacy with Judicial Review: An independent judiciary with the power of judicial review
